LENIN'S EMBALMERS CANADIAN PREMIERE

WRITTEN BY VERN THIESSEN,
Governor General Award winner in Drama
October 14-24, 2010 at The Berney Theatre
A co-production with the Harold Green Jewish Theatre
Company (Toronto)

LENIN'S EMBALMERS follows the journeys of Boris Zbarsky and Vladimir Vorobiov, two chemists charged with embalming the Communist leader Vladimir Lenin. But Boris and Vlad have some problems: Lenin has been dead for two months; no scientist has embalmed a person in perpetuity; they are both Jewish; they hate each other and if they fail, they'll be killed.

THE FATHER WORLD PREMIERE

ADAPTED BY JULIE TEPPERMAN
Based on the play by August Strindberg
PART OF MTC'S MASTER PLAYWRIGHT FESTIVAL:
STRINDBERGFEST
January 27 – February 6, 2011 at The Berney Theatre

Julie Tepperman is one of Canada's most promising young playwrights. The author of the critically-acclaimed and sold-out sensation Yichud (Seclusion) this past February in Toronto, Julie brings a fresh eye, sharp wit, and a female perspective to her adaptation. THE FATHER is Strindberg's famous play about a man feuding with his wife over how to raise their daughter. WJT's past entries in MTC's Master Playwright's Festivals have played to sold out houses and critical acclaim.

ONE OF OURS WORLD PREMIERE

WRITTEN BY MICHAEL NATHANSON,
Governor General Award Nominee in Drama
March 31 – April 10, 2011 at The Berney Theatre

In 2007, WJT presented the World Premiere of Michael Nathanson's TALK. ONE OF OURS is Michael's newest play and WJT audiences will set to see it first.

This comedy is set at West Hawk Lake, Manitoba and follows the story of two Jewish brothers, in business together, whose lives are changed when the older brother brings home a young actress from New York City. ONE OF OURS explores issues of entitlement, sibling rivalry, and our evolving ideas about privacy.
